

Gabriel Hayden

Education

CELTA Certificate (face to face)

Norwich Institute for Language Education (NILE) - August 2024

6 hours of individual teaching observed and assessed by a team of experienced Cambridge Assessment English approved trainers.

Received input on both face-to-face and online teaching and collaborative planning; undertook 6 hours of teacher observations and engaged in reciprocal peer observations, sharing evaluation and feedback.

Bachelor of History and Philosophy - Upper Second-Class Honours (2:1 = 108/110).

University of Sussex - September 2019 / June 2024

Full year Erasmus exchange

Ca'Foscari University of Venice - September 2022 - June 2023

Enrolled in classes from the PISE course (Philosophy, International and Economic Studies).

Professional Experience

English Teacher

LONDON School, Florence, Italia (Present)

Experience working with children of all ages and high school aged students

Preparation of all course materials, including course outlines, lesson plans, games and exercises.

Experience with Cambridge Exam Preparation (A2, B1, B2, C1)

Flexible and adaptable to learning styles and situations

English in Action, UK (2024)

Delivering highly interactive English language lessons to groups of teenagers throughout Austria and Germany.

Working collaboratively with fellow teachers to tailor lessons to the particular needs of specific groups of students.

New Routes Integration, UK (2024)

Planning and delivering in-person English language lessons to groups of asylum seekers. Managing variable class sizes from 15 to 35 students, with student age ranging from 5 to 70 years old

Skills

- Dynamic, supportive and engaging teaching style.
- Ability to plan and deliver effective student-centered lessons using a range of frameworks.
- Ability to analyse target language in depth.

Languages

English - native speaker

Italian - Limited working proficiency